

Year-by-Year Course Outlines

A pre-requisite of 4 credits in Biology, either Human or General is acceptable, students who do not have 4 credits in Biology may elect to take the CLEP exam (a score of 50 or higher is mandatory).

The co-requisites are: 3 credits in a bioscience (psychology, chemistry, nutrition etc...) and 8 credits in Anatomy and Physiology. Eastern School of Acupuncture offers year round courses in Anatomy and Physiology, however students may elect to take the co-requisites at any accredited college. Co-requisite courses must be completed before students may enter the second year of study in the Acupuncture program. A grade of "C" or greater is required for all pre and co requisite courses.
